

International practical seminars in the framework of multilingual education

The Center for Multilingual Education organizes international seminars with the participation of foreign scholars and foreign specialists to improve the qualifications of teachers of foreign languages, with the subsequent issuance of international certificates.

International Seminar "Effective Methods and Technologies in Teaching Foreign Languages

International Seminar «Methods of teaching disciplines in English in the framework of multilingual education»

