

Current results 2023

IRN AP19676064 " Digital rights in the Republic of Kazakhstan: development of legal mechanisms for expanding the content of legal personality in the era of digital transformation (in the plane of private law relations)"

Section of the calendar plan with description	Implementation deadlines	Brief description of the work performed/results obtained	Information on possible use
№1 Research of the legal nature and properties of digital rights, formulation of the concept of digital rights as a legal category with a distinction between existing approaches to understanding this category	July - November 15, 2023	The material was analyzed and an analytical review was conducted, a report was presented at an international conference with publication.	The results of the scientific round table and monograph on new digital rights can be applied in the following areas: 1. Academic training : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Courses and programmes : Research can be integrated into the curricula of law schools specialising in information technology law, digital rights and data protection. - Research papers : Students can use monographs as the main literature for their diploma and dissertation research.
№2. Consideration of existing sources of legal regulation of digital rights, taking into account international and supranational legal regulation	July - November 15, 2023	A scientific round table was held The monographs "New digital rights : theoretical approaches to study" have been prepared and published in Kazakh and Russian languages. New digital rights: theoretical approaches to study: monograph / A.K. Kaishataeva , M.B. Moldazhan , D.B. Razieva , F.G. Ibragimova – Semey, 2023.– 98 p. Digital rights – a new area of legal attention: materials of the scientific round table, November 3, 2023 / edited by A.K. Kaishataeva – Semey, Alikhan	2. Practical application : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Consulting and legal practice : Lawyers and consultants will be able to use the acquired knowledge to provide services in the field of digital rights protection, developing recommendations for businesses and government organizations. - Law enforcement practice : The research results can serve as a basis for developing practical recommendations for the application of legislation in the field of digital rights. 3. Policy and legislation : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Developing new norms : The monographs can be used by government agencies to create and improve legislation regulating digital rights. - Discussions at the level of government structures : The materials of the round table can become the basis for consultations and working groups dealing with issues of digitalization and legal regulation.

		Bokeikhan University , 2023.- 115 p. Zhana digital құқықтар : zertteudің theoretical tasilderі : monograph / A.K. Kayshataeva , M.B. Moldazhanov , D.B. Razieva , F.G. Ibragimova – Semey, 2023. – 105 p.	4. Education and enlightenment : – Seminars and trainings : The results can be used to conduct seminars and trainings on digital rights for various target audiences, including businesses, human rights defenders and ordinary citizens. – Publications and Outreach : Research can be adapted for the general public in the form of articles, blogs and media publications, raising awareness of digital rights.
№3 A study of the classification of digital rights with a detailed examination of specific features	July - November 15, 2023	The material was analyzed and an analytical review was conducted, a report was presented at an international conference with publication.	5. International cooperation : – Comparative Law : Monographs can serve as a basis for studying and comparing approaches to digital rights in different countries, which can facilitate international cooperation and exchange of experience.